

Peaceful Town Of Colma In Quandry

"What if he says he will?" the council was asked.
"Then we will take steps Thursday night to declare the office vacant," was the reply.
"And what if he won't resign?" the press representative asked.
"Then we've got a problem again, but we'll still have to take action vacating the position," was the answer.

Still Must Vacate
"In other words," the reporter asked, "You'll still have to vacate the position in either instance?"
"Well, yes," the council said.
"Not necessarily," said town attorney James Halley.
"But you'll still be taking action tomorrow night that you could have taken tonight," the reporter questioned.

There was no answer.
For the peaceful little town of Colma, which has registered slightly in excess of 100 voters, and a substantial residency of deceased it was probably the most hectic meeting in years. It also is believed to be the first time that the press had been represented at the placid community's meetings.

Says "Dictator"
City Clerk Ed Weisenburger who has held the same job since 1924, was labelled by Flynn as a "dictator" because he criticized the council for delaying action on the matter. "You've got the facts," said Weisenburger. "Why all this palaver? It's a certain fact he can't work. Why don't you tend to business and stop fooling around with arguments. You've been fooling around for six months. Joe realizes he can't come back. If you have to take drastic action you just have to. We represent a community."

Although some 70 minutes was consumed in the meeting, the council transacted no official action with the exception of adjournment and the unofficial appointment of the committee to visit Ryan.

A Rundown
A brief rundown on the session went like this:

John Newton moved that the office of chief be declared vacant. After silence followed.

Flynn then made known his stand that Ryan should be notified, and should be allowed to resign.

Lacking a second on his motion Newton made a new motion that Ryan be phoned at that time and asked if he thought he wouldn't come back to the job.

"But what if Joe says he won't resign?" Newton ruminated.
"I'll tell you the answer when it comes to a vote," Flynn retorted. Again the motion apparently died for lack of second.

Attorney Halley then arrived on the scene. He vetoed the phone idea, stating the council's duty was to relieve Ryan of his duties in "the most graceful way imaginable."

Acting chief Folan, the only member of the audience present at that time, was asked if he knew Ryan's personal feelings about possibility of losing his job.

"You're All Through"
"What do you want me to tell?" Folan answered. "Isn't it the intention of the council to tell Joe 'you're all through'?"

"We should determine this one way or the other," said Councilman Earl Taylor.

"I renew my motion to declare the job vacant," said Newton.
No second.

"The chief is an appointive officer, the board can do anything it wants to," reminded Weisenburger.

Daly City Boy Pulls Knife At Teen Dance

Department, who called police, reported that members of the gang had been drinking.

Ingersoll told officers that the youth refused to leave and when Ingersoll threatened to call police, he drew a knife. The gang, hawking pieces of melon over the dance floor, left with a teenage girl whom they took forcibly from the building.

Officers arrived in time to rescue the girl, and the knife-wielding youth was arrested the following night at his home.

Police, who are supposed to check community center dances every hour, said they were not notified of the dance. Recreation Director James Mason admitted today that he had forgotten to inform police and said that he would take sole responsibility for the error.

THE OLD TIMER
"It is not in giving in to others, but building into them, that makes sound homes."

"If you'll withdraw your motion," said Taylor to Newton, "I'll make a new one."
Newton said his motion was not valid, having no second, so Taylor moved that a committee be appointed to contact Ryan. He asked that Flynn be chairman.

"I decline," said Flynn testily.
"Dirty Work"

"Somebody's got to do the dirty work," fired Taylor.
"That's why I don't want to do it," retorted Flynn. "It's dirty work."

Newton then volunteered to act as chairman.
Although there appeared to be no second, vote was taken on the motion, it passing 4-0, with Flynn abstaining.

"I withdraw the motion then, if you're abstaining," said Taylor angrily.

So Newton again brought forth his motion to declare the office vacant, and again all was stillness.

"Can I have your second, Mr. Taylor?" asked Newton.
"I'd like to hear Mr. Flynn first," Taylor replied.

Newton withdrew his motion.
Motion Passes
Taylor then made what proved to be the only successful legislative move of the night when he moved the meeting be adjourned to the next night, so that an unofficial committee could contact Ryan. This motion passed.

Halley recommended no action be taken again Thursday if any councilmen were absent.

After the meeting closed, Taylor and acting chief Folan engaged in a bitter exchange of words outside the town hall, but the other councilmen said they didn't know what it was about.

Later Mayor Ray Ottoboni, who presided over the meeting, said he would have seconded some of the motions but as chairman he was not allowed to under parliamentary procedure.

In addition to Councilman Lagomarsino, other applicants for the police chief job include August Benassini, Daly City police sergeant, Raymond Garibaldi, Henry Gross, Westlake special officer and Ozzi Spilvalo.

PTA ADVISES ON ENDING DOUBLE SKED

warded to Mr. Doelger and Mr. McKeon requesting their home-building plans. These are to be returned to the Board in the form of a letter outlining their intentions for the next five years, number of homes, apartment houses, etc.

"2. Upon receipt of these letters from the above builders, the Board of Trustees should forward these plans to the State with the request to borrow funds for the purchase of school sites.

"3. The PTA president should appoint a permanent committee with the responsibility of counting home foundations, vacant built homes, and vacant apartment buildings. This survey should be reported to the School Board, which may apply immediately for State funds to build schools.

"4. To alleviate the present sessions, the School Board or its representatives should immediately contact Mr. Doelger and Mr. McKeon to obtain temporary classrooms by:

- Temporary buildings that can be built by these contractors on present school property.
- Temporary classrooms in the form of existing homes, community centers, etc., not on school property.

"5. The School Board can arrange in lieu of point 4, above to rent or lease churches, stores, community centers, or any available buildings in the vicinity for classrooms to eliminate all double sessions now existing.
"6. Dr. Curry or Mr. Glantz suggested that more effective cooperation should exist between the City Planning Commission, the Board of Trustees, and the builders.
"7. To clarify any of the above points, Dr. B. C. Curry and/or Mr. Alfred Glantz are willing to attend the next meeting of the school board upon invitation."

Recreation Commission Postpones Week's Meet

This week's recreation commission meeting has been postponed until next Tuesday, according to Recreation Director James Mason. The meeting was postponed because Mrs. Gordon Carlson, commissioner, was unable to attend, Mason said.

He explained that it was felt that all commissioners should be present during discussion of completion of the ground floor at the Daly City community center.

Mrs. Carlson was unable to attend because of an annual church meeting the director said.

But on the stand at last week's PUC hearing he was asked to state his full name for the record. Not wavering a bit, Jack stood back and fired bravely: "ULMONT REDVERS KENDREE."

"Ahem," deliberated questioning attorney JOHN PUTKEY, "do you go by any other name?"
"Jack," was his succinct reply.

At least monument makers ELIO and his father V. FONTANA are in the right business.
Monday Fontana senior had a trailer full on his head and he suffered head cuts requiring eight stitches.

Shortly thereafter that day Elio had a monument fall on his toe.

Customers at a local sluing rendezvous, told by the proprietor that another DC nightery was allowing dancing after the legal 1 a.m. limit, asked said proprietor, "Why don't you pay off like the others do?"

DC police apparently gave little credence to the statement, since they copied it down in the night report.

Thomas R. Gilbert, your Telephone Manager in Daly City

Housewife rates her telephone "tops"

"Of all my household items," says Mrs. F. G. Dominey, "I think my telephone is the most useful. I can't count all the ways I depend on it. For example, I do a lot of my shopping by phone. Then there are the calls for repairs, to make appointments, to round up my youngsters in the neighborhood, and for a hundred and one other things. And that doesn't include all the pleasure our phone brings us... as a fast, easy way to visit friends and relatives. I certainly don't know what we'd do without it." Most people we've talked to agree with Mrs. Dominey about the usefulness of the telephone. Isn't it true that few things which serve so well cost so little? Pacific Telephone works to make your telephone a bigger value every day.

Enjoy a family visit in several cities at once by long distance

Did you know you can actually talk to several members of your family at the same time by long distance? Well, you can, even if they're scattered all over the country. Each of you can talk back and forth to the rest as if you were all in the same room. We call this a telephone conference call. To place one, just tell your operator the people you want to talk to, where they live, their phone numbers, and when you want to talk. She'll do the rest. You'll be pleasantly surprised at how little it costs, especially if you call after 6 p.m. in the evening or any time Sunday. Why not give your whole family a real surprise with a conference call tonight?

Telephone Company Appoints Woman Manager

Wannell Swearingin has been appointed Manager in San Francisco, and is the first woman manager in the Northern California and Nevada Area. She started in the Business Office as a Service Representative and progressed through management as an Instructor, Business Office Supervisor and Training Supervisor prior to her new appointment. In her capacity, as manager, Mrs. Swearingin, has under her supervision one Assistant Manager, twenty-eight Service Representatives and seven Business Office Supervisors who take care of all business transactions for customers in the Underhill 1, Underhill 3, Market 1, Klondike 2 and Hemlock 1 Central Offices. Mrs. Swearingin is a member of the Soroptimist Club, San Francisco Women's Breakfast Club and the Eureka Valley Promotion Association.

A MEETING OF LOCAL GOVERNMENTS

Often cited as one of the main factors in the ever-worsening problem of school expansion is the fact that school districts are not apprised of prospective building developments and programs by municipal planning and recreation commissions.

In other words, the right hand doesn't know what the left hand is doing.

Many times a builder has plans in the making for a mammoth development, but the schools are caught with their administrative pants down, because they have made no provisions for purchase of school sites in the area, while local and county planners have supposedly known about the project for several months.

The result is higher cost for the land, if the land is not already committed, and inferior school sites.

On the city's side, local councilmen have made a plea for integration of school-city facilities. After all, the council argues, it all comes out of the same tax payer's pocket.

Why, says the council, duplicate playgrounds, gymnasiums, swimming pools, etc., when one of any of the above facilities would serve the area at half the cost with a little judicious negotiation?

Both the municipal and school districts arguments are sound. But nobody seems to make any real effort to get at the heart of the problem.

A possible solution to appease both governmental entities and still save the heckled taxpayer a few bucks would be as follows:

Have the city council appoint to its planning and recreation commissions one member of the school board. The local high school district is already fortunate enough to have as a trustee one of the recreation commissioners, and it's been a boon on many occasions.

Under this system, a school district would receive full report from its trustee-commissioner on all future building and recreation plans.

It would also foster a more amiable attitude between district and city, thus making possible the development of joint recreation programs which would eliminate duplication of facilities.

Number of members serving on commissions is, of course, governed by state law and local ordinances.

The city couldn't just start picking trustees to sit in with the duly selected commissioners.

But when a term expires or a vacancy occurs by resignation in one of the commissions, the city would do well to give this proposal its undivided attention.

Chuck Lewis Claims He Was Slugged And Robbed Of $343 Here

Chuck Lewis, owner of the Colma driving range, was allegedly hit on the head and robbed of $343.37 in cash and checks as he left a bar at 6192 Mission street Saturday morning at 2 a.m., according to a police report.

Lewis told officers that he was knocked unconscious by a blow on the head as he left the tavern. He said that when he awoke a few minutes later he found his sweater torn to shreds and $70 in cash and $273.37 in checks missing from his pockets.

JEFF HIGH TRUSTEES REAFFIRM POLICY ON PUPIL INFORMATION

Policy of refusing to divulge personal information about students at Jefferson Union High school was reaffirmed Monday night by the board of trustees. Superintendent Stanford Hannah told the board that the policy had been in effect at Jefferson even before recent legislation outlawing the practice was passed.

The legislation limits giving of information to the following persons: parent or guardian; person designated by parent or guardian in writing; officer or employee of a public, private, or parochial school where the pupil attends, has attended, or intends to enroll; officer or employee of the government seeking information in course of his duties; officer or employee of a public or private guidance or welfare agency of which the pupil is a client; and employer or potential employer of the pupil.

Stipulation is that the act is not intended to interfere with the giving of information by school personnel concerning athletic, scholastic or other school achievements.

Police Bicycle Auction Nets $112 For City Fund

Buyers went home happy, and the Daly City police department took in $112.08 at the annual bicycle auction held Wednesday at the city hall. Proceeds will be turned over to the city's general fund.

Performing auctioneer duties was Lieutenant Roy Beecher, while Matron Juanita Giusti took charge of handling exchange of money.

Mrs. Giusti estimated that 25 persons were present for the auction and said that many buyers planned to repaint the bicycles and give them as Christmas presents.

The auction gives the department an opportunity to get rid of unclaimed lost articles which have been turned in to police, Mrs. Giusti said.

Thieves Enter 2 Cars While Owners At Dance At War Memorial Center

Theft of articles from two cars parked on Hillside boulevard near the War Memorial building was reported to police following a dance at the Memorial center Saturday night.

First victim was Henry P. Seagles, Jr., 220 Whittier street, who claimed the loss of a battery valued at $25. Anthony Grassel, 214 Bon View avenue, San Francisco, was the second victim. Grassel told police that missing were an overcoat and flashlight, valued at a total cost of $46.95.

Both thefts were discovered when the men returned to their cars after attending the Schlage Lock company dance at the center.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

San Francisco's Civic Light Opera winds up its sixteenth year of presenting the lighter side of the musical world with "Plain and Fancy," currently packing them in at the Curran. From the time the curtain rises on a map of the Amish country of Pennsylvania painted on a drop to the principals' final bow, the association's final offering is top notch entertainment.

As you know, the forefront of the title refers to the inhabitants of Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, whose philosophy is expressed in the musical highlight, "Plain We Live." Into their eccentric (to us) world comes the fancy couple from Manhattan, played by Alexis Smith and Craig Stevens. The latter is interested in selling his inherited farm and Alexis is interested in Stevens. After some difficulty with road maps and local characters who top off their confusing directions by singing the customary advice, "You Can't Miss It," the pair from Manhattan finally reach Bird-in-Hand, a small Amish community, where they learn that customs may differ but people are the same the world over.

Marry Her Off

There they meet Katie (Janet Medlin) a young Amish girl whose father, a crusty old beaver if ever there was one, is determined to marry her to Ezra Reber (Harry Fleer). Ezra is a philosophical soul who believes that one girl is pretty much the same as another, so "Why Not Katie?" But Katie is in love with Ezra's brother Peter (Richard Armbruster) who spends most of his time under a cloud of Amish disapproval. There is even a hint of a third love interest, that of Hilda Miller, a personable Amish miss temporarily fascinated by the fancy stranger. Dran Seitz was particularly noteworthy in this role.

All this sounds pretty confusing, but as the evening progresses the romantic snarls are untangled and everyone ends up with the one he should have. The Amish dialect is used to get laughs but is never run into the ground. A source of additional amusement is the bottle of Scotch brought along by Alexis Smith, who assures Harry Fleer that it is a tonic derived from vegetables, "like corn or rye."

Pleasing Songs

Although the score is not a memorable one there are several pleasing songs, particularly "Young and Foolish," "City Mouse, Country Mouse" and "Plain We Live," exceptionally well sung by Michael Kermovan, Katie's almost unrelenting father.

Helen Tamaris created some engaging dances that move the story line along. There is one danced by lantern light and there is a frenzied carnival ballet that must have raised the temperature in the theatre twenty degrees.

"Plain and Fancy" will never do for Pennsylvania what "Oklahoma" did for the "Sooner" state, but it livens an evening very nicely.

Just a few more chances to see the Abbott-Abrams' production "Picnic" at the Theatre Arts on Washington street, where the motto is authenticity at all costs. When chunks are supposedly torn out of "The Ballad of the Sad Cafe," there isn't any supposedly about it—it really is a copy of the book, sacrificed on the altar of art by a member of the production staff who modestly prefers to remain anonymous.

Cemetery Sued By SF Widow

Holy Cross cemetery officials are being asked to open a grave and pay $50,000 damages to a San Francisco widow who claims her husband was buried in the wrong grave.

Mrs. Anne M. Vielbaum claims that she paid the Colma cemetery $211 in March, 1954, to bury her husband's body in dormitory V, station 1A, grave 193.

She said that she visited the cemetery nine months later and found a stranger's name on the tombstone of the grave designated to her husband. She said cemetery officials said they would investigate when told of the alleged error.

Three months later, the suit states, she was told that her husband's body was not in grave 193, but that the officials "believed" that the body was in grave 194. She said they refused to open the grave at her request.

BURLINGAME

The town of Burlingame is named for Anson Burlingame, one-time ambassador to China, who visited the peninsula in 1866, reports the California State Automobile Association.

Village Notes

By Gwin Mitchell

That whinnying and clomping heard in the Bradley-Stoneyford sector a while back was not imagination—there was a real horse there, the guest of honor at young Paul Talbot's 4th birthday party. Being a cowboy party, mother Jan thoughtfully provided the proper equipment all young cowboys and girls to a a-ridin' down the trail (or around the back yard, as the case may be!) Ellen and Joanne Azevedo, Kent Guymon, Mark, Cathy and Barbie Smith, Jimmy Swanson, Don Clark, Robert and Jimmy MacDougal, Susan Sawhill, Marianne Murtagh, Gary Hewitt and Christy Talbot were there at the Talbot old home ranch for all the doins'.

And just so the boys didn't get one ahead, Susie Williams, down on Maddux, represented the distaff side of the birthday question, having a 5th birthday party for herself. Kathy, Grady and Danny Proctor, Linda, Tommy and Heidi Hartman, Leslie Williams, Mona Doyle, and Connie and Steven Surges had one good big fine time eating cake and ice cream.

People have been coming and going around the Villages so fast lately that it's getting hard to keep up with who lives in what house! One thing we do know, unfortunately, is that Sam and Scotty Wright, our own next-door-on-Maddux neighbors, have moved away, and we're sure sorry to see them go. On the other hand, we're glad to welcome the Chiveres, who will be our next door neighbors after all the dust and confusion of trading houses has settled!

Home for Visits

Daughters home for visits seem to be the thing up on Nimitz, with Bea and Art Huser glad to have Wanda with them for a while. Wanda's husband, Dan Saunders, is currently in San Antonio, Texas, in training with the AAF. Ever know of an Air Force man—or an Army one for that matter—who didn't get to Texas? And another Nimitz family with a daughter home for a visit is the Painter establishment, with Edith and Art and young ones Lance, Judy and April all glad to have Lynn back from Grand Rapids, Michigan. Lynn's husband, Bruce Hodge, will be out this way shortly, and Lynn hopes to convert him to a Californian!

We were most interested in learning that Lynn had originally gone back to begin a career for herself in show business, and that she had had singing and dancing parts in the civic light opera programs there. Seems that show business has been in her family for a long time, with father Art having sung on the radio, and Lynn's maternal grandmother having played the Pantages circuit as a dancer. Like both her older sisters, Ann and Jean, Lynn majored in art and music—a natural bent for her talents and interests. Right now she is working at the Empire Theatre in the evenings and keeping a weather eye open for baby-sitting jobs during the day. We also learned that, in addition to being the director of education for the Kaiser hospitals, head of the family Art is an ardent hunter and fisherman, and son Lance is a chip off the old block. A couple of weekends ago, the two of them came back from a hunting trip with 4 rabbits, no less!

Not so lucky were Cliff Warner and Clarry Otosen, who came back home to Gilman with nary a deer. Seems that the deer they saw didn't have horns, and the deer with horns saw them first and left in a hurry, and so far into the night! We wouldn't doubt, though, that there is many a local Nimrod who could nod his head over this item and say, "I know what you mean!"

Well, That Bird has been busy again around the Villages—you might know! Latest arrival is a new sister for Petey, Patti and Shelley Alba on 87th Street. Her name is Terry, and she arrived with 7 lbs. 6 oz. to her credit. The golden glow around the Alba house is only parents Carol and Pete beaming with pride.

Father's Birthday

Father's Day—birthday, that is—came to the Olsen family on Village Lane, with Eddie having a very nice Sunday for himself. Friends dropped in, relatives came to a birthday dinner, there was a birthday cake, and Marion had recovered enough from the rash of smelly fry family birthdays during the week before to really enjoy this one with him. A belated wish from us!

Pat and Bill Stockslager had a most terrific time traveling during Bill's vacation. Bill left Ellis street first, and spent a week visiting his brother Bryce in Fresno. Then Pat took time out from work and joined him and off they went.

They spent a night in Los Angeles, and went to the Biltmore Bowl, where they saw Helen Forrest (singer) and Henny Youngman (comedian). Then they went on to San Diego, stayed there overnight, and took off for Tijuana and Ensenada. Pat was much impressed with the beautiful glassware she saw there, and the leatherwork and polished tin and pottery. They saw Mexicans hand-painting designs on circular skirts and making baskets, and they saw lots of cars and some beautiful motels and hotels. Gasoline is a good deal cheaper there, and perfume and jewelry very reasonable. Altogether a nice place for a shopping expedition! And then after a stopover in Fresno en route, Pat and Bill came home, and their son Bryce came down with chickenpox by way of celebrating their return!

Though didn't suffer alone, Bruce, Loyal friend Carrie Cauti, who lives next door, came down along with him. The sad part about her situation is that October 12, in addition to being C-Day for Columbus and chicken pox, was also her 5th birthday. No doubt, though, she and Bryce will be fine by the time their mothers read this!

Twins Girl Cousins

Mimi Green (Manila) is one happy and excited girl. She now has new twin girl cousins—Janice and Judy Tierney, who mother, Ginny Tierney, is our own Gert Green's sister. And speaking of Gert, we certainly admire the chic new hairdo she was wearing as PTA hostess the other night.

Sorry to say that there have been bruises and contusions in the Villages. Four year old Michael O'Brien fell down the hill in back of his Thornhill home and cut his head badly, while little Connie Manis cut off the top of her finger in the garage door over on Village Lane. Take it easy, kids—hope you're better soon. And there have been new flu victims, too. Gerrie Richard, and most of the rest of Gilman, including the mailman, had it, and the Helmers on Maddux had it, and not to be outdone, we had it too. Never a dull moment! But at last reports, things were pretty much on the healthy side again, thank goodness. Majila Way's Buchanan family had their problems in quadruplicate. First Bob was quite ill, then Jimmy stayed home from school for a week with an infected ear, then Billie had flu for two weeks, and finally young Johnny had his turn with a tonsillotomy. Things ought to be looking up for them now, we hope. Sorry to report, too, that Rosemary Coulter and Vi Murphy have not been feeling quite themselves, and hope that rest and best wishes will put things right again.

Kay and Ray and Judy Logan left 512 90th street in the capable hands of neighbor Nonette Swedberg and Got Away From It All by spending three lazy sunny days at El Rancho Motel in Sacramento, with an evening's visit with the Foss family (ex-90th streeters) adding to their enjoyment of an Indian summer vacation. Some people have all the luck!

Washington Street window-watchers no doubt saw a flurry of feminine high heels and pink-and-blue-wrapped packages one evening this past week, all turning up Norma Peters' front walk. The occasion was a baby shower for Margaret Hughes, with Norma as hostess, and the people causing the flurry were guests Betty Isonia, Virginia Alexander, Cherie Dawe, Doris Shover, Lisa Waller, Olive Frye, Mary Patsel, Judy Winikoff, Gloria Dalze, Betty Moretti, Helen Mackintosh, Austa Gynn, Barney Nygaard, Helen Lane, Dolly LePine and Shirley Terry.

Nice News Note

While we're on the subject of babies, a nice news note: Young Kathleen Wickham is now home on Gilman with parents Walt and Marion after a longer stay in the hospital than most new babies have. She is 7 lbs. of happy healthy baby, who was very warmly welcomed by brother Kenny and sister Kristin and is very dearly loved by all her family.

Our street, Maddux, had its quota of birthdays for the week when next door neighbors Jimmy Esposto and Mike Corso had celebrations. Jimmy began the week by being 3, with 15 relatives to help him eat birthday cake, and Mike ended the week by being 6, with friends Dickie Esposto, Clifford Box, Jack and Donny Mitchell and brother Ricky Corso bringing presents and sharing in the birthday fun.

Gilman Drive's Maloney family is in the midst of several happy occasions these days. Trudy's son, Danny Rezendes, was home on (Continued on Page 4)

PERSONALITY SKETCH . . . When questioned about a "secret ambition," our television and radio personality of this week answered . . . "It's no secret. My ambition is someday to have my own radio station." So spoke talented Larry Doyle, staff announcer of KGO-TV and another local resident active in the television field, and who lives on Ellis street in Broadmoor. A member of KGO's staff for 4½ years, Larry Doyle has participated in many well-known programs both on radio and television. Smooth and professional on the air, Larry is able to perform wherever needed—from delivering a commercial to portraying a business agent as in a recent dramatic Labor Day program, "State of the Union." Other programs on which he has appeared include, "San Francisco Tonight," "Boston Blackie," "Manners for Muttis," and "Bill Stern's Sports Today" which featured interviews with noted sports figures such as Bobo Olsen, Rocky Castellani and Ty Cobb.

A graduate of Washington State college, Larry served in the European Theater during World War II as a platoon leader of a tank unit and was awarded the Purple Heart. A major in the army reserves, he has the distinction of being one of 48 men throughout the United States in psychological warfare, department of the Army. He met his wife, Bets, while at college.

Radio Work

Following Army service he worked at various radio stations including KIEM, Eureka, KFSD and KSON, San Diego, and KGA at Spokane where he was sports director. He said if the truth is known . . . he really followed Bets to Eureka where she was also working at Radio Station KIEM as director of women's programs. Following their marriage while living in Spokane, the young couple decided that they wanted to live in California, so just like that they decided to move, and Larry joined KGO's staff.

The DoYLES have two children, Mona, age 4 and baby Bryce, 5 months old. Although they had been renting their house for several years, they decided to buy it because as they said "They like living here . . . they like the community." Both young people have been active in the community . . . they are members of the Broadmoor Presbyterian church and Bets has worked on the Community Chest drive.

Larry said his hobby is fishing . . . when he gets time. When we interviewed him he said his present "hobby" is painting. They had just finished the living room and were about to start on the other part of the house. As we watched this earnest couple in their charming home . . . we know that together someday they will succeed in that ambition of owning their own radio station.

Kiddies Corner

"Heidi" came to life! . . . and that is exactly what happened October 15 over KRON when NBC presented the beloved children's classic in a 90 minute color spectacular, the first of the "Max Liebman Presents" series for 1955-56. The production was superb . . . the music, delightful, including songs by three of the world's finest yodelers, The Trio Schmied, in their American TV debut . . . and with the famous Baird Puppets, the program was altogether one of the finest we have yet to see on television. It held children's interest from beginning to end . . . and also was excellent dramatic musical entertainment for adults.

NBC has wonderful plans for the fall season including more than 75 special shows—spectaculars, one shot teleumentaries, and occasional holiday spectacles. In December a colorcast of Tchaikovsky's "The Sleeping Beauty" will be presented. This is what television can do so effectively for our children—make all the wonderful stories in children's literature really live through the medium of the television screen. We could not help but think what an exciting age we are living in! "Heidi" was one of our very favorite books . . . we recall reading it over and over. How wonderful it would have been to have viewed it actually coming to life over television as our children are privileged to do.

LOCAL CHILDREN ON BUCKSKIN TELECAST . . . More children from our area were guests in Buckskin Bob's backyard as they appeared on his program (KQED, Thursdays, 5:30 p.m.) telecast over Channel 9. Members of Den 10, Pack 84, Cub Scouts of Broadmoor were guests on the show the previous week and included Jimmy Orlich, Bill Irvine, Jack Petranker, John Bartelme and Bruce Hix. On last week's program Buckskin Bob welcomed Tom Torlakson, Dennis Buell, Carmel Navarro, Kenneth Linderman, Mary Rich-

News From Here & There

Seen enjoying an evening of dinner dancing at the Claremont last weekend were RAY and PAT ORBANUS. The four little ones enjoyed staying at home with our favorite baby sitter of Abbot, Jerilyn Vickers.

Many happy returns to little Miss VELMA AINSWORTH who recently blew out four candles on her birthday cake, with twelve of her little friends and playmates to help her celebrate.

I see that the ANGELO TUVOS who recently moved to Sunshine Gardens still haven't forsaken us. They still come in every weekend to do the family shopping here.

By the time this edition comes out that busy bee FRANCES RIGGAR will be in Japan. She left by plane from Travis Air Base last Monday.

The meat ball and spaghetti dinner that was held recently by the Martha Circle of the Grace Presbyterian church was a big success.

The salvage drive that was held by the Hillside PTA also turned out quite successfully.

After the Sterling Park dance last week most of the gang went to the BURT BOVERO's for breakfast.

A recent dinner party for a few of his friends helped RAY DURHAM celebrate his eighth birthday day which make him eligible to be a cub scout in his Mother's den.

Sorry to hear that OTHA KINSEY is in the hospital but is convalescing rapidly and is looking forward to being home soon. About fifty of her little charges really miss her. MRS. KINSEY is a kindergarten teacher at the Colma school and a wonderful person.

The latest hostess to a Tupperware party was MRS. MANDY KELLER of Thiers street, and demonstrator was popular Nadine Denegree.

A belated birthday wish to GERALDINE FRANZIOIA of Moltke, who recently celebrated her birthday.

The DAN THEMOLEAS of 37 Werner were the lucky ones to win the new Ford automatic that was raffled at the Holy Angels carnival. There are five little ones in the family and they are looking forward to the many happy rides they will take in their new car. . . . Right now they are anxiously looking forward to the day that their father will be coming home from the hospital. He was operated on a few days before the drawing, so the news came at just the right time.

Heard that the Girl Scouts in Troop 154 enjoyed their barbecue the other evening in the Jake Nefziger's yard.

Another young miss who is wearing a cast these days is two-year-old SUSAN BURDICK of Frankfort street. She fell out of her high chair and broke her collar bone and will be wearing a cast for about six weeks. The last report from her Mom was that she is being a very good patient.

By the first of the month the SAMUEL ALBAS of Bepler will be saying goodbye to all their friends and neighbors, and will be calling Palo Alto home.

I hear that FRANCES RIGGAR ardsen, Dianne and Elaine Hagerman.

NATIONWIDE TELEVISION PRESS CONFERENCE . . . For the first time a press conference was held in major cities throughout the United States simultaneously by a closed circuit television presentation over the CBS network with the premier of "The 20th Century-Fox Hour" (KPIX, alternate Wednesdays, 7 p.m.) sponsored by General Electric. As we sat in the KPIX studios, host Joseph Cotten appeared on the television screen from New York giving a brief background on the program for the benefit of the press watching at similar gatherings throughout the country. Following his introduction, the first program "Cavalcade" produced by 20th Century-Fox especially for television was presented. We feel that if the first program is any indication, the series will certainly prove to be one of the outstanding dramatic shows on television. Next week's production will be "Laura," dramatic adaptation of Vera Caspary's novel with George Sanders, Dana Wynter, Robert Stack and Scott Forbes.

and LILLIAN BERTUCCI enjoyed a wonderful luncheon at the Officers Club at Treasure Island the other day. No doubt to celebrate Mrs. B's birthday, so many happy returns from us too, Lil.

Two more folks who celebrated birthdays just days apart were EDITH and her hubby ADOLPH SILVESTRI of Werner avenue. So belated birthday wishes to a swell couple.

Happy birthday to you, ART HUELSE of Abbot who celebrates his day October 28.

Glad to hear that SHERRY BUCHANAN is suffering no ill effects after falling out of a moving car recently. After emergency treatment she was able to go right home. However, she is sporting some very bad bruises.

About sixty cubs and boy scouts attended the annual Halloween party this year of Pack 243. Many interested parents arrived as it was also the monthly pack meeting.

The reason for a family gathering the other evening at the MARCHETTI home on Mariani, was that son MICHAEL just had made his Confirmation.

What's this I hear about MEIDA BROWN of C street, Colma, being in the hospital? Do hope it's just for a short stay. Troop 154 will really miss her.

Those traveling McNEALY's are at it again. They enjoyed a wonderful weekend in Sacramento with relatives.

The WILLOUBYS were quite surprised the other evening when they dropped by to visit with their grandchildren Judy and Billy. To their surprise they were the recipients of a family birthday party, honoring both of them as their birthdays are the same day. The children spent their allowances for weeks in advance but they say it was worth it.

Another Abbot home that was a busy one last week was 155 Abbot when about 28 friends of JERILYN VICKERS arrived to celebrate Halloween.

Latest members to join the ABC Club are MRS. ALVA SANTOS and MRS. CHARLOTTE ARKO. These gals meet every Friday at KGO and plan different outings to keep busy. This club is for women who weigh over 200 lbs. and wish to lose weight. So far our gals have lost quite a bit of weight and are quite proud of themselves.

The JOHN BUCHANANS of Atlanta street have been busy entertaining Mr. Buchanan's brother David who has been visiting from Sidney, Australia.

The Colma PTA plans on celebrating their 22 birthday November 1st. Many wonderful plans have been made to make the evening an interesting one.

MRS. ANN McNEALY entertained a group of women from the MARTHA CIRCLE which held election of officers.

Happy birthday to you, WAYNE CARR of Hillside boulevard, who will be celebrating a birthday October 30. How many candles will be on his cake this year my spy forgot to say. . . . While around the corner on Abbot we're sending belated birthday wishes to another one of our dads, ED BURGER.

Hope JOAN KESLO, a student at the Colma school, will be able to join her classmates soon. All of her friends are sending their best wishes to her during her illness.

That flu bug must be working overtime these days. The CRABBE family on Station street have finally gotten rid of the little bug. SANFORD VICKERS is having a time shaking his cold, and yours truly also was visited by the bug, but it didn't stay long. Being no picker about sharing I gave mine to dear old Dad. But I do believe you'll live, Father.

Hope you have your candy in for trick or treat and a nice Halloween to one and all.

Colma PTA To Fete 23rd Year Tuesday

Colma PTA will celebrate its 23rd birthday at the regular meeting next Tuesday, 7:30 p.m., at the Jefferson Elementary school, 14 Alemany street, Daly City. H. Z. Weibel, superintendent of Jefferson Elementary school, will speak on the topic: "Team-Work Does It By Knowing Your School and Community." JR. CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS FORM NEW DC TROOP

St. Paul is the name given to the newly formed troop of the Junior Catholic Daughters, according to Miss Mary Hughes, publicity chairman. Adviser to the troop is Miss Murrury.

Troop Pope Pius X, which recently held a Halloween party, will hold their next business meeting at Patty De Groot's home, 56 Vendome avenue, on November 2.

Maridolores Hughes' home, 125 East Vista avenue, will be the scene of the next meeting of troop St. Anthony on November 7, and Troop St. Joan of Arc will gather at Treasurer Arline Weckerle's home, 130 Vista Grande avenue, on November 8.

Broadmoor Cubs To Hold "259 Festival"

Because Broadmoor Pack 259 parents group will hold the "259 Festival" on Friday and Saturday, November 11 and 12, the pack meeting regularly scheduled for November 11 will be moved forward to November 4, according to John Pickens, committee chairman.

To be located on the lot at the southwest corner of 87th and Washington streets in Broadmoor, the festival is being planned by the parents group to raise funds to donate to the operation of Cub Pack 259, newly organized this year.

Fathers of Cubs in the pack's five dens are being recruited to build the booths for the games on the weekend of November 5, and both mothers and fathers are being contacted to register for "booth duty" by members of the committee.

"Since this is our biggest project to date," said Pickens, "we'd like to see it a highly successful one, and that will depend on help from every family with a boy in Pack 259. Anybody willing to help many reach me at PL. 5-2264, or Cub Master Bill Beck at PL. 5-0183."

The next committee meeting will be held on November 1, at the home of Quentin Fletcher, 66 Fairview.

ISLAND VACATION—Mr. and Mrs. Lyle C. Brown are shown enjoying a holiday in picturesque Nassau in the Bahamas Islands. While there the couple, guests at the luxurious Emerald Beach Hotel, were entertained with special parties, sightseeing tours, deep sea fishing trips and even calypso dancing lessons. Brown is associated with Gateway Chevrolet company of Daly City. He was awarded the trip as a grand prize in a national Chevrolet sales program.

VEHICLE CHIEF ASKS USE OF DC OFFICE DURING MID-WEEK

Local motorists are jamming the Daly City office of the Department of Motor Vehicles to such an extent on Mondays and Fridays that Stan Seaton, office manager, asked for a let-up.

"Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday are good days, too," Seaton said.

"We have the longest lines and most crowded conditions of the week for driver licensing services on Mondays and Fridays and the Department strongly recommends that anyone who needs driver licensing service would profit by making an appointment in advance for the tests. Just phone JU 7-9115, between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. any day of the week—preferably Tuesday to Thursday. We can appoint a convenient time for your test, and you need not wait in a long line to be served," Seaton concluded.

No Evening Service At Savior Lutheran

The Lutheran Church of Our Savior at Junipero Serra boulevard and Garfield street in San Francisco will have no evening service this Sunday, as the Rev. Luther M. Schliesser Jr., pastor of the church, will be one of the celebrants of the Reformation Festival of the San Francisco Lutheran churches at 7 p.m. at Grace Cathedral.

However, pastor Schliesser will officiate at both morning services at Our Savior Lutheran, 8:30 and 10:45 o'clock both of which will also focus on the reformation. Sunday school classes meet at 9:30 a.m.

Party Honors John Merlo On 67th Birthday

John Merlo, Daly City resident since 1902, was the honor guest at a recent surprise party held in honor of his 67th birthday. Giving the party for her father was Mrs. Albert Guisti, 6785 A Mission street.

All of Mr. Merlo's brothers and sisters were present at the event. They are: Mr. and Mrs. John Merlo, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Merlo, Mrs. Mary Barsi (Mary Merlo), Mr. and Mrs. Louis Merlo and Mr. and Mrs. A. Zanetti (Louise Merlo).

According to Mrs. Guisti, her father was the first landscape gardener in Daly City.

General Pershing

The sixth grade class at General Pershing school is hoping that they can go to the Cow Palace to see the livestock show on November 2.

We are studying Mexican songs and dances. We made Mexican serapes and have them on the wall. A girl in our class, Elaine Ansaldo, had her appendix out and has been absent for several weeks. We hope she will soon be better and will return to school.

SAHARA TO TONOPAH

Camels were used to carry supplies to mining camps in Nevada in the 1860's, reports the California State Automobile Association.

Vista Grande Church To Hold Guest Day

The 101 Vista Grande Avenue Christian church announces that Sunday is Guest Day. Howard Patrick McConnell, minister, is to speak on the subject "What Are You Reading These Days?" Music is under the direction of Mrs. Bernard Green.

Sunday school, with classes for all ages including the babies, is held at 9:30 o'clock. A nursery is also maintained during the church service to take care of babies and the 2-4 year old children.

The church joins with other Christian churches in a joint meeting at the First Christian church, Duboce at Noe, 7:30 o'clock when Rev. Ervin Sheets, general field director of the Pension Fund of the Disciples, will speak.

The minister cordially invites all who wish to join the bible study on Wednesday evening and the prepared dinner program on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr. McConnell is attempting the Assembly of Disciples of Christ of all California and Nevada being held at Bakersfield. He will return to his pulpit on Sunday.

SAFETY FORMULA

One of the best ways to stay out of trouble when you're driving, says the California State Automobile Association, is to treat all other drivers as courteously as you treat other people when you're afoot.

"DO NOT JUDGE FROM MERE APPEARANCES"

—*(Author's name below)—
The average cost of a prescription is just about the charge for a good meal. This is a tribute to the pharmaceutical industry that spends millions on research yet keeps ultimate costs so low.

Some medicines appear to be expensive. Judging by appearances a dozen capsules may not seem to be worth as much as six dollars. Your Physician knows their higher cost and true value. When he prescribes them for you he knows that your eventual cost will be much lower because they will do you more good in less time. Trust his judgment. We will cooperate by pricing them fairly.

'56 Chevrolet sets new Pikes Peak record in top-secret test!

Not long ago a hush-hush, camouflaged '56 Chevrolet scorched the nerve-breaking road up Colorado's Pikes Peak for a new NASCAR* certified record—the first time that old King of the Mountains has seen a new official stock car record in years! And what a road! 170 chilling turns and no guardrail! It's the first and only time a new model ever proved itself such a great road car before its introduction! The '56 Chevrolet showed the kind of performance that makes driving safer and more fun. So wait for the car that beat the King of the Mountains!

Estimated 5000 Kids To Enjoy DC Rec Halloween Activity

Approximately 5000 local children, from the tiny tot to teen-age bracket, will take part in the Daly City recreation department's round of Halloween activities.

Halloween parties will be held Monday night, from 7 to 9:30 p.m., at Garden Village, Crocker, Gen. Pershing, OLPH, Colma, Jefferson Elementary, Woodrow Wilson and 87th Street schools. Movies will be shown, free ice cream provided and prizes awarded for most original, funniest and best-all-around costume. These parties are being co-sponsored by local parent-teacher organizations.

Also on schedule for Monday night is a dance for seventh and eighth graders, to be held from 7 to 10 p.m. at Daly City community center. Free ice cream will be offered. There is no admission charge.

Saturday night the teen-age Halloween festivities will be held from 8 to 11 p.m. at the community center, with dancing and ice cream on the agenda.

Hillside Reports 553 PTA Members

Mrs. William Bradshaw, Hillside PTA membership chairman, announced at last Wednesday's meeting that the recent drive brought in 553 members to the parent-teacher group.

The prizes went to Mr. Bell's upper grade class and Miss Pellison's lower grade class. Attendance prizes for the meeting were awarded Miss Trioli and Miss Kinsey's class.

Last week's program, presided over by Mrs. C. Mattison, featured presentation of colors and pledge to the flag by Scout Troop 244, sponsored by Hillside PTA.

A civil defense film, "You Can Beat the A Bomb," was shown. At conclusion of the meeting, program was turned over to the husbands of the officers and board members. C. Mattison took charge. The men were attired in their wives' best hats or kerchiefs, earrings, gloves and carry their handbags.

Honor DC Mariner As Scout Delegate

Carole McInerney, a member of Mariner Ship No. 4, of Daly City, was recently honored by being chosen as a delegate from the North San Mateo County Council of the Girl Scouts to the National Girl Scout convention. The convention, which includes girls and leaders from all over the nation, is to be held in San Francisco during the first week of November.

Mariner Ship No. 4, of Daly City, and Sea Explorer Ship No. 76, of South San Francisco, were hosts for a Halloween dance on Saturday night at the Dunks Street community center. The guests were members of the newly organized Mariner Ship No. 13 and the Land Explorer Ship of Broadmoor. Altogether, about 50 persons attended the dance.

Hearing On Jitney Broadmoor Route Reveals No. 76 'Out'

State public utilities commission Thursday closed hearing on application of Northgate Transit Co. to extend their jitneys into Broadmoor-Colma area.

The four-hour session found the city of Daly City attempting to show the public necessity and convenience of extending the jitney operation into unincorporated San Mateo county.

The jitneys operation is currently limited to the corporate limits of Daly City, and may not cross the boundaries without a certificate from the state PUC.

The hearing officer at Thursday's session, Thomas Daly, will report his findings back to the utilities commission, who will give their opinion in approximately one month.

Testify of Need

While several witnesses testified to the need for jitney transportation in Broadmoor-Colma, the main threat to the Northgate Co.'s chances of securing certificate appeared to be their financial status.

George Ferris, Northgate business manager, testified at the morning session that the company had total assets in the bank of $300, and that between the time the operation started on July 8, and October 1, the firm's revenue only exceeded costs by $73.92.

Figures showed that cost of operation during that period was $250.42, while total income was $357.72, or gross income of $224.30. Incidental expenses of $130.38 lowered the net revenue to $73.92.

During July, Ferris, continued, the jitneys had 3705 fares, 9252 in August, and 11,380 in September, indicating the general increase in business.

John Putkey, attorney for the applicants, said the firm has applied for corporate papers, proposing to limit shares, 18 in all, to the company's drivers, and to two promotional representatives, J. Walsh and Paul O'Leary, and to their accountant. Each share, Putkey said, would be $100 par value, meaning that total assets from sale of stocks would be $1800.

Jack Kendrick, managing director of Westlake Shopping center, testified for the first time that his firm, Henry Doelger, Builder, Inc., has asked to be relieved of subsidizing the No. 76 Muni Bus which is presently the only line which would offer the jitneys competition.

Kendrick said his firm has sent a letter to San Francisco Muni Railway asking that the contract which calls for subsidy until December 31, be abrogated.

"World Benefit"
"The Northgate Transit Co. would benefit the shopping center and all the people in both the incorporated and unincorporated areas, Kendrick said.

"We feel the jitney business has increased to a point where their type of transportation is preferred by us over the No. 76."

Questioning the favorable witnesses was Frank Blum, city attorney of Daly City, which is backing the jitney application to extend its operation.

Property Owners association, stated on the stand that, "Under the circumstances, the Northgate Co. could serve the area far more adequately than it's ever been served."

Transit For Kids

Baker also said the jitneys would provide transportation for several hundred children attending Garden Village, Benjamin Franklin and Colma public schools and Holy Angels parochial school.

A private citizen, Mrs. L. A. McConkey, 8 Louvaine drive, said that, "There is no transportation at all in our area. The closest is seven-tenths of a mile away."

She declared the Northgate route would take care of her transportation needs.

Putkey had several other favorable witnesses from Broadmoor, but Charles Overhouse, transportation engineer for the commission, suggested they be waived, pointing out that all their testimony would show the same need.

Vern Anderson, superintendent of traffic for San Francisco Municipal Railway, said that Muni would definitely abandon the No.

JESD Neglects Filing For Funds, Official Says

Franklin would be adequate?" quizzed Trustee Hartley Appleton.

Light Classrooms
Weibel replied that the district had eight classrooms on double sessions at that time.

"Maybe so," Appleton retorted, "but we also had ten multi-use rooms in use as classrooms."

Trustee Henry Kraus drew more definite information on the subject by asking Smith, "Is estimated attendance sufficient or is it necessary to produce tangible evidence of the construction of houses in the district?"

Smith replied that tangible evidence such as foundations or public utility lines connected to each home unit was necessary to apply for state aid.

State Help?
Trustee Joe Lewkowitz was next to question Smith. "If the state knew that the district was distressed, why didn't they pass along the information you have just told us?" he asked.

"We put out bulletins which we expect to be read," Smith replied. "We don't have the time or the staff to act as advisors to every district under our jurisdiction. We expect the district to ask questions."

Weibel then stated that he and Architect Mario Ciampi had visited the county office and received the "impression" there that application could be made on only one school at a time.

August 24 Item
The superintendent further told THE RECORD today that he had been informed of the misconception in August and had taken steps to remedy it. On the August 24 board meeting agenda there appeared on item 12 a "resolution application fund for Vista Grande school." This was more than a month prior to call for bids on Benjamin Franklin school.

Smith next read the allocation board report which stated that the district had 828 unhouseed children in May. When asked by Appleton whether the board had received a copy, he replied that a copy had been directed to the board's authorized agent, the superintendent.

PTA Representative
The board recognized Mrs. Wesley Foster of Broadmoor, representing the James L. Snell PTA committee to eliminate double sessions. She explained that her group had visited the county office Tuesday and had been informed of all the above mentioned facts.

"If five people can visit the county and gain all this information, I don't understand why it is so unavailable to you," she addressed the board.

"We assumed the information was coming correctly," Appleton retorted.

Lewkowitz next addressed the PTA group: "We've invited the PTAs to send representatives to each board meet, but they never show up except at times like this."

Lee Lester spoke angrily. "Weibel told an outright lie about the Benjamin Franklin school," he charged.

"Fall Guy"
Weibel again reiterated his position. "I'm on the spot along with the architect and the board members of a year ago," he stated.

"The superintendent is always the fall guy, especially by people glib with handing out accusations."

He continued by explaining various problems met in making application for Benjamin Franklin school.

"Also," he continued, "there are people in this district who watch just as closely that we don't overbuild as you people watch that we don't underbuild."

"For those of you who feel we've been negligent, it's easy for you to use hindsight," he stated. "If you'd been here at the board meetings you might feel differently." Weibel concluded.

Plea For Realism
Kraus made a plea that the board be "realistic." "We're in a district where builders are operating all around us," he said. "Is it realistic to think that we'll ever have less than two or two and a half per cent of our children on double sessions?"

"My child was in a multi-use room for a year and didn't learn half of what he should have," retorted Appleton who has repeatedly fought for the abolishment of multi-use classroom arrangements.

"I'm not saying that we should not be concerned," Kraus told Appleton. "I'm only saying that we should keep the problem in its proper perspective."

Architect Ciampi also asked the board for a proper perspective.

"Build Tradition"
"In later years people will look back at these buildings. Do you want them to see schools built by frenzied people only to get children out of the wind and rain? We're building tradition too," he concluded.

Kraus backed Ciampi's statement and told the board that they at the table here what the duties of the controller were. I discussed the duties and introduced one of the new men to the council. It's not important, except I don't want the impression that the action was taken without council approval."

"No Specific Action"
"This may be true," Ross said. "But there was no specific action establishing the positions. As far as I'm concerned, if the council wants it, I will change the minutes."

Stites addressed Ross, "I think the city clerk is doing a good job in all respects. I'd just like to suggest a few changes. If you'll permit me to drop into your office and go over the minutes."

Ross answered abruptly, "I'm the city clerk. I make up my own minutes."

"Offering To Help"
Pointing to a third item which he considered incorrect in the minutes of a recent meeting, Stites said, "I'm offering to be helpful. Not critical."

Mayor Joseph Verducci then asked Ross if he would make the corrections, to which the clerk replied, "If you (the council) direct me to by motion. I've been making up these minutes for a long time. From now on if there's any change in the minutes I want it done by council motion."

The mayor agreed, and said the necessary changes in the minutes would be taken at the next meeting.

Weibel then stated that he and Architect Mario Ciampi had visited the county office and received the "impression" there that application could be made on only one school at a time.

comment on San Francisco's attitude on the issue.

Councilman Michael De Bernardi and Del Wilson were firm in their belief Monday night that Daly City should oppose Peninsula's operating on the No. 56 route, but Councilman Sanford Vickers disagreed.

"We'll hurt our present form of transportation if we allow Peninsula to come in," said De Bernardi.

Vickers said, "I'm for legitimate transportation, such as the franchise lines."

Vickers said the Peninsula line would be a benefit in that it would connect Daly City and South San Francisco. "The more transit we get, the better," he maintained.

The discussion ended by Callan asking all persons interested in serving on a committee to advise the board to write their intentions to the superintendent. Callan's action was made following an offer by Attorney Joseph F. Ferrea to assist Attorney Appleton in inspecting recent legislation concerning schools.

"This may be true," Ross said. "But there was no specific action establishing the positions. As far as I'm concerned, if the council wants it, I will change the minutes."

Stites addressed Ross, "I think the city clerk is doing a good job in all respects. I'd just like to suggest a few changes. If you'll permit me to drop into your office and go over the minutes."

Ross answered abruptly, "I'm the city clerk. I make up my own minutes."

"Offering To Help"
Pointing to a third item which he considered incorrect in the minutes of a recent meeting, Stites said, "I'm offering to be helpful. Not critical."

Mayor Joseph Verducci then asked Ross if he would make the corrections, to which the clerk replied, "If you (the council) direct me to by motion. I've been making up these minutes for a long time. From now on if there's any change in the minutes I want it done by council motion."

The mayor agreed, and said the necessary changes in the minutes would be taken at the next meeting.

Court Orders Knight To Explain Failure To Call Special Vote

Governor Goodwin J. Knight will appear before state supreme court next Tuesday morning to show cause why he has failed to call a special election in the 25th assembly district, northern San Mateo county.

The assembly post was vacated by Daniel J. Creedon last year, shortly after he was re-elected to the legislative body.

The supreme court, on application of San Mateo county Democratic central committee, issued an alternative writ of mandate ordering the governor to call the election or appear and show cause why he has not.

Appearing for local Democrats Tuesday will be Thomas Jenkins of Broadmoor, Democratic candidate for the assembly job, and Mel Cohn, chairman of the county central committee.

Commenting on possible outcome of the hearing, Jenkins said, "I don't see how the governor can sustain his position that the election should not be called. He has no authority for the statement that such an election should be requested by the county board of supervisors."

CITY DISCUSSES PURCHASING OWN GARBAGE DUMP
Purchase of a garbage dump site which could be developed later as a recreation area was proposed at Monday's meeting of the city council as a means of overcoming the refuse disposal problem.

Explaining that the Daly City Scavenger Co. was now dumping garbage on the McKee property off Skyline boulevard on a day-to-day permit revocable at any time, City Manager Howard Stites recommended the city purchase its own site. He proposed that the city lease the land to the local garbage firm and others interested. He explained that under this set-up, the city would have complete control over the dump to insure its cleanliness and use of proper fill and cover methods to preserve the land's value.

Stites said that unless the Daly City Scavenger Co. found a fill and cover dump site in the very near future, "They might be back before the council asking for another rate increase to pay cost of transporting the refuse a further distance."

An 80-acre site south of Westlake that includes land on both sides of the Ocean Shore highway was suggested as a possible garbage dump.

The property, estimated to cost somewhere between $25,000 and $50,000, would have to be paid for on a long-term basis.

Al Sereni, president of the local garbage firm, declared he would rather have his organization purchase the property, but revealed that the lease plan would be satisfactory if his firm was guaranteed a long-term lease on the land.

Stites said the municipally owned dump site proposed along the coast would handle fill and cover operations for 8 to 10 years. After that, he pointed out, the land could be developed for recreation purposes.

Stites said he would meet with City Attorney Frank Blum to determine methods of financing purchase of a garbage dump site.

tained that the county planners action in approving the transfer had nothing to do with the gas station. "The commissioners made no recommendation on use of the land. It was only a change in right of way."

Get Planners Opinion
Mayor Joseph Verducci said that although the matter was out of Daly City's jurisdiction, "We should make a recommendation to the county." The mayor said he would like to get the local planners opinion on the exchange first. He set November 7 as date to meet with the commissioners.

Councilman Sanford Vickers asked that Arthur Bodien, chairman of the county planners, be present. "He often criticizes us for not cooperating with the county on matters involving contiguous territory. He should cooperate with us on this issue."

This evoked a comment from a member of the audience, George Kirchhabel, who claimed, "I was here a month ago and Bodien brought that same subject up."

Manager Attacked
Another citizen, Mary Phelan, secretary of Better Government for Daly City, switched the theme of the discussion when she launched a verbal attack on City Manager Howard Stites.

"Bodien brought up the need for civil defense here seven weeks ago and now I see where Stites is claiming credit for it. Why do we bring a man all the way from Redding to follow our policemen around with private investigators? We're paying money for it and I know it."

Neither Stites nor the council had any comment on the woman's remarks.

LITTLE CAGERS HIT STRIDE; RAP SSF PANTHERS

The pint-sized basketball players from Jefferson High school were back on the win trail this past week, as the 10s and 20s each scored lop-sided wins over Burlingame and South San Francisco.

The local 20s smeared Burlingame Tuesday, 44-29, while their little brothers, the 10s, were claiming a 42-31 victory.

Leroy Franzola banged through 15 points to lead the local 20s, while Andy Ruelas was runner-up with 11.

Ross Holmgren tanked 14 for the Jeff 10s, followed by Dan Miller's 10. In the 10s tilt, Burlingame held a 15-14 half-time edge, but the Indians cut loose for 20 points in the third canto.

In last Thursday's twin bill against SSF, the Daly City 20s humbled the Warriors, 52-28, while the local 10s were winning an equally one-sided contest, 49-21.

Miller paced the 10s with 15 markers, followed by Holmgren, who netted 12.

Big guns for the 20s were again Ruelas and Franzola, with 13 apiece.

The double victories placed the 10s in a tie for second with a 6-2 mark, one game behind Capuchino, 7-1, while the 20s hold down third, also 6-2, behind San Mateo, 7-1, and Capuchino, 8-0.

The 20s can improve their standings with a win over San Mateo in a game scheduled for Thursday of this week.

Next Tuesday both clubs should claim victories, facing Half Moon Bay, and following up on Thursday with equally weak Hillsdale.

Golf Tips

By BILL McARTHUR
Professional, Treasure Island Driving Range

There Goes That Slice Again
Without a doubt this mistake is the most frustrating of all mistakes made in golf. In desperation I've seen many good golfers use nothing but irons all the way around the course because the wood from slicing. This in itself should tell a great deal of the story. Why? you ask. To begin with the woods are longer shafted clubs than your irons. Naturally with a shorter shafted club the chances of getting the head of the club to the ball at the same time your hands reach there are much greater than with longer shafted clubs such as the woods.

The Fault
One main fault is that too many golfers try to steer the ball down the center of the fairway. In doing so they turn their left side away from the ball too quickly and pull the clubhead across the ball creating a side spin that has to send the ball to the right. This is the type of slice that usually starts toward the center of the fairway, then suddenly takes a 90 degree turn to the right. Another fault is lack of right hand action. That is, failure to roll your right hand over as you hit through the ball. This usually results in a push slice, where the ball will go out at right angles at impact.

The Correction
Practice swinging out at the ball. By that I mean take the club head back slightly inside your intended line of flight, and then swing out across the line of flight on the downswing. If done correctly this type of swing will create a slight hook spin on the ball, providing you do one more important thing. That is roll your right hand as you hit the ball. This will prevent you from pushing the ball directly to the right. By rolling your right hand over you also square the face of the club head so that ball won't fly off at an angle.

Remember
It doesn't take strength to hit a straight ball. It takes timing and coordination. Swing easily and freely. Swing your weight over to your left side as you pull down, and learn to swing out across the intended line of flight. Practice snapping your right hand into the ball at the very bottom of the swing. Start with your 2 or 3 wood at first until you have learned to swing in the manner prescribed. These clubs have a little more loft and will be much easier to control.

Next Week:
How do I get backspin.

To the man who's thinking about buying a new truck:

maybe you're missing something...

➤ And what you're missing is more than "maybe," it's for sure—if you haven't yet visited your Dodge truck dealer.

➤ Do you want to miss a rock-bottom price? Perhaps you haven't realized that Dodge trucks actually cost less than you'd pay for corresponding models of most other makes.

➤ Do you want to miss power so high it leads the field? Consider this: with engines of 169 to 175 horsepower, Dodge overpowers every other leading make of truck in the low- and medium-tonnage fields.

➤ Surely you don't want to miss the dependability, the over-the-years economy for which Dodge is so well known.

➤ You don't want to miss Dodge safety—which includes the biggest wrap-around windshield of any truck on the road, the shortest turning radius. Or Dodge superior cab comfort... Forward Look styling.

➤ In short, you can get a whale of a lot more truck for a good deal less money than you think! Stop in and see your Dodge truck dealer right away—don't miss anything!

FROSH GRIDDEERS TOPPLE CAP, SHARE PAL LEAD WITH 3 WINS

Previously unbeaten and unscathed-upon Capuchino frosh-soph football club got their knicks last Thursday at the hands of Jefferson's talented yearling team, as the Daly City team scored in the third quarter to turn a kicking duel into a 7-0 victory.

The win-boosted Jefferson into a two-way tie for first in the frosh circuit, with three wins, one tie. Sharing the lead in Carlinpoint, who was the other half of Jeff's tie game.

In Thursday's game the first half was devoted to a defensive game in which the two clubs exchanged punts with monotonous regularity.

Get Close Twice
The Indians got as close as the opposition 16 yard line on one occasion, and pushed to the 22 on another in the first quarter.

The Mustang club threatened in the second quarter, moving to the 25-yard-line, and as it turned out, that was as close as they ever got, as a fourth quarter drive also expired on the 25.

Jeff's winning tally came in the opening of the third quarter after Sonny Martinez took the Cap kick-off on his own 10, ripped down to the Tang 43. After two short-gainers, QB Paul Tapia then hit Barry Haanan on a 30-yard aerial, placing the Indians on the six-yard line.

Two running plays ate up four more yards, and Tapia went through the line for the two-yard TD. Martinez ran over the conversion.

Threaten Again
The Indians bid fare to strike for six-points again late in the fourth period as a sustained drive carried them from their own 20 to Capuchino's one yard line, where the Jeffs ran out of down. A dazzling catch by Pete Garcia accounted for 25 yards of the distance. His third reception of the day, the catch gave Garcia nine straight snafus in a row without missing one. Tapia threw nine times, hitting Garcia three times, Haanan twice, for a total of 95 yards in the air.

Tapia came out of the game on the injured list, suffering a recurrence of a knee injury.

In the running department, Herb Dinks carried the mail four times and picked up 23 yards for the Indians. Backs Neil Dunsford and Martinez also figured as key men in the victory, along with Dirks and Tapia, while in the line, Adrian Thompson was declared "outstanding" by Coach Tony Giammona.

Coach Tuns Tide
Giammona revealed that on the game's scoring play, the man chiefly responsible for the Jeff opportunity was Lou Martin, assistant coach. On the third-quarter kick-off, which the Indians only got back to their 20, Martin was the only one to notice that Capuchino had 12 men on the field. He informed the officials, and they ordered Cap to kick over. It was on the repeat kick that Martinez returned the ball 47 yards into Mustang territory and the Indians drove on to score.

Also figuring heavily in the triumph was the scouting work of assistant coach Rod Losburger. The Indians were scheduled to meet Menlo-Atherton (3-1) yesterday, and take on Burlingame (1-1-2) at the Panther field next Thursday.

OLPH Boxing Shows Resume November 12

OLPH Men's club announced today that they will resume their monthly amateur boxing programs at the Daly City community center on Saturday, Nov. 12.

Walt Gillies, promotional chairman, said eight or nine bouts will be on the card. Gillies said despite the higher rental fees now in force at the center ($90 plus five per cent of gross over $500), admission prices would remain the same, $1.50 for reserved, $1 general and 50 cents for children.

The Men's club will set up and take down the ring, thus saving a $55 city charge established for this service by the city.

TOP PIN TEAMS SUFFER UPSETS

Daly City-Colma Bowling league pace-setters, Luce, Meat and Vince & Fred, each suffered two-game losses to further tighten the pin race at Brentwood Bowl Tuesday night.

The league-leading Luce club was knocked off twice by their business competitors, Thur Meat, as Frank Thur tallied a 507 series for the victors. Luce's Charles Tansen's 202 game contributed to his club's lone win.

V & F held on to a shaky second behind Luce as the tavernmen fired a 920 game in the final round to come up with a single win against Carlos Pizzeria.

J. Howell's 202 game, 526 series, and all around steady play by the Pizza gang figured in the upset.

Vince Marlo, with a 505 series, Tony Santos, 209 game, 539 series, Babe De Luca, 213 game, 524 series, and Lloyd Selmi, 502 series, all turned in good performances for the V & F club.

Westlake Homes took over third place, two games behind Luce, as they matched two games from San Pedro Lunch. After losing the opener by three pins, Westlake reversed this score in the second game, winning by three, and went on to cop the third encounter. Hank Amstutz recorded a 213 game, 550 series, Rudy Alholm a 208 game, 509 series, and Stan White, a 502 series, to pace Westlake.

Otto Schramm's games of 203, 190 and 565 series and Dell Fehl led the losers.

Ralph's Cleaners remained in contention with a two-game pasting of DC Cleaners. Paul's Flowers and Starway did not play, due to mechanical failure of the pin-setting machine.

Creighton Clobbered But Team Still Wins

San Mateo Blues rallied from a 7-3 deficit Sunday and boomed home nine runs in the seventh frame to top Menlo Park Blue Jays, 12-7.

Daly City's Lowell Creighton, ex-Jefferson pitching ace and presently in the employ of San Francisco Seals, started for the Blues but was clobbered for 10 hits and seven runs in four innings of toil.

Dick Hanlon took over in relief, working the final three innings and allowing no hits.

Jeff Tilt With Cap Today Looms As "Biggie" In PAL Grid Picture

Last week's 47-14 victory over San Jose was "our best game to date," says Jefferson High school football coach Joe McGrath, "but we'd like to win today's almost more than any other this season."

By today's, McGrath means the encounter on the Daly City field with the Indians nemeses for the past two years, Capuchino. Game time is 3 p.m.

Not only would a win today be the first for Jeff over the Mustangs in three years, but more important, it would place the Indians right in the midst of the race for the PAL championship. Jeff is currently tied for second.

A devastating attack, aerial and on the turf, gave the local team a resounding 47-14 win over San Jose last Friday and caused most of the PAL coaches to sit and reconnoiter the championship race. The triumph was the second for Jefferson, against one defeat.

No Crystal Ball

But McGrath isn't looking any further on the calendar than today's "titantic" tilt with Capuchino, a team that's potentially as rough as any in the league. "True, the 'Tangs have two losses, says McGrath, but look who defeated them—Lincoln and South San Francisco, the league's two unbeaten clubs." The Warriors were lucky to gain an 8-6 win over the Caps, while Lincoln was at its season's best in registering a 33-6 victory.

No pessimist, McGrath still isn't placing himself in the favorite position today, what with a third of his starting team, including whiz quarterback Jim Honeywell, on the doubtful starter list.

On The List
On the infirmity roster from the San Jose effort are: Honeywell, who suffered a torn rib cartilage; Ted Amirkhan, right end, who injured his knee; Herman Kihns, right tackle, also a knee injury; and Jim Farley, second string right tackle, ditto on the knee hurts; Bob Grubb, right guard, who had his toe stepped on; Nick Sutter, defensive tackle, a bad leg.

Figured as replacement if these stalwarts aren't ready for action are: Al Gerrans, right tackle; Lou Arrighi, right guard; Ron Cryer, right end; and Ron Moon, defensive tackle.

Up and coming QB Ed Leveroni will try to fill Honeywell's shoes if the "old" master Honeywell isn't healed.

THE BOOMER — All PAL candidate Jim Honeywell, No. 42, crunches for another 10 yard gain Friday in Jefferson High school's 47-14 route of San Jose.

Following up at rear is halfback Ron O'Rourke, No. 18, while center Don Weisner, No. 48, looks on. Honeywell, quarterback for the Indians, chewed off 73 yards rushing Friday, while O'Rourke led the club with 84. Honeywell is currently tops in the PAL for total yardage gained.

Up and coming QB Ed Leveroni will try to fill Honeywell's shoes if the "old" master Honeywell isn't healed.

"No Emergencies"

Asked if this injury business just meant the boys weren't available for early-week action, McGrath rendered a healthy "no." He said, "I have a strict policy. If a player can't go full speed on Thursday, he doesn't shut up on Friday." So if Honeywell wasn't up to par yesterday, he won't go today. "Not even for an emergency," said McGrath. "I figure no emergency is that important when a player is not physically ready to play."

McGrath's chief fear in today's game comes in the persons of Cap backs Bill Cole, the league's leading rusher, and swivel-hipped B. Vuillemeuva, who flashed for a total of 80 yards against the rugged Lincoln defense.

Adding Machine
If Jefferson displays an offense today as powerful as that which rocked San Jose last week, Capuchino had better bring an adding machine.

Led by Ron O'Rourke, and of course, Honeywell, the Indians uncorked a 431-yard offensive. The 47 points amassed by Jeff put them far and away on top among the PAL teams for total scoring, with 89 points in three games. The Jeffs also led the league in total offense.

The Indians chewed up 260 yards on the ground, 171 in the air Friday, as the San Joseans wondered what him 'em.

The Jefferson eleven scored the first three times they had possession of the ball, and held a 21-0 command as the first period closed. At half-time it was 27-7.

The Same Way
The second half went all the same way, as O'Rourke, Honeywell, Tex. Prentice, Dan Miceli and Jerry Howard went for sizeable gains on the ground, and Honeywell pitched successfully to Tom Cloutier, Ted Amirkhan and Jim Giblin.

O'Rourke led rushing with 84 yards, followed by Honeywell's 73, 47 for Prentice, 32 for Miceli, and 25 for Howard.

Tom Cloutier continued his rapid ascension as the Indian's top pass receiver, snaring six passes for 129 yards. Amirkhan grabbed three for 35 yards, while Jim Giblin took one in for seven yards.

Honeywell's passes connected eight times out of 10 for 153 yards, while his understudy tossed twice, hit twice for 18 yards.

Daly City Annexes Two Matches In Cop Shoot

Colma Mayor Ray Obbotoni captured high individual honors in the San Mateo County Police Pistol championship matches held Sunday at his own range in Colma, while Daly City police officer James Welsh fired second high round in individual competition among regular officers.

Overall high individual scores were computed on the basis of combined scoring in the open match. Obbotoni had a total of 564.

Welsh shot a 270 in the open match to finish as runner-up among regular police officers.

DC Wins Trophy

The Daly City police team, made up of Welsh, Charles Terry, Dick Thomas and Jim Sunderland annexed the large Obbotoni perpetual trophy in the open class, as the first and second place teams, special deputies and deputy sheriffs, were not eligible for the award, having claimed it before. Daly City shot 1060.

In the regular police officers class, Daly City finished first with a combined 1067. Firing for local police were Welsh, Terry, Gerald Schaeffer and Sunderland.

Scores, respectively, in matches 1 and 2 for Daly City competitors were: Welsh, 270, 269; Terry, 268, 267; Thomas, 266, 265; Sunderland, 256, 256; Schaeffer, 265, 265.

Clean Sweep
Terry's 267 and Schaeffer's 265 placed them second and third, respectively, in individual scoring for regular officers, making almost a clean sweep for Daly City.

Chiefs match was won by Capt. Kennedy of the CHP, while special match between Judge Thomas L. Bocci and Sheriff Earl Whitmore failed to materialize, as the sheriff was unable to attend. Bocci posted a 240.

Following are complete results: Open match—first, San Mateo county special deputies (Obbotoni, Martin, Clayton, Geiger), 1111; second, San Mateo deputy sheriffs, 1067; third, Daly City, 1060.

Regular officers match—first, Daly City, 1067; second, deputy sheriffs, 1014.

Chiefs match—first, Capt. Kennedy.

Reserves individual match—first, Obbotoni.

Special match—first, Judge Bocci.

Regulars individual match—first, J. C. Mills, 274.

It got its lightning from the Thunderbird!

The long, low lines and beautiful new styling of the '56 Ford makes it a dead ringer for the fabulous Thunderbird. And in power, too, Ford is mighty like the Thunderbird.

Ford's new Thunderbird Y-8 engine, successor to the V-8, is 202-h.p.* strong. Basically, it is the same as the engine that won nationwide fame for alert performance in the Ford Thunderbird.

Another exciting advance in Ford for '56 is Lifeguard Design. It means added protection against the major causes of injuries in accidents. You're protected by a new deep-center steering wheel, new double-grip door latches, new optional seat belts and safety padding.

Let yourself go—for a thrilling test drive in the Thunderbird-inspired '56 Ford. Come in. We've got the keys!
